Christians at Work: Monday, 1st October at 8.00 at The Cottages, Leckhampton Church.

The talk this month will be “Red Tape and Good Intentions” the Revd. Ann Dowdeswell. Anne worked for five years as a Partnership Officer, working with the Council, police, Primary Care Trust and service providers with local groups and organisations, trying to get “everyone singing from the same hymn book”, with a group of people trying to make a difference to their local community whilst battling with plans and processes of statutory organisations and local government.

Harvest Supper, Saturday, 20th October from 6.00 pm at FMH.

Following on from the very successful and much appreciated suppers the Overseers arranged last year, we are planning a Harvest Supper with in-house entertainment to follow. The Overseers will provide the soups and drinks and we hope you will contribute the savouries and desserts. There will be a list posted in the foyer for you to indicate what contribution you prefer to bring. Do put the date in your diary NOW and look forward to what should be a very pleasant social evening.

Peace Group News

The Peace Group has been supporting the CAAT (Campaign Against Arms Trade) campaign to shut DESO. Defence Export Services Organisation exists to sell arms to companies and to lobby for arms exports within government. DESO is uninhibited by ongoing conflicts, human rights abuses or pressing development needs. It is focussed purely on arms company sales and profits and its position and role within government means that the arms industry's vested interests are relentlessly promoted across government. It employs nearly 500 civil servants in the MOD, placed entirely at the service of arms companies.

As a result of steady campaigning since 1974, by CAAT, Gordon Brown gave a statement on 25th July that DESO is to shut by the end of 2007.

See the yellow notice on the Peace Group notice board. Another proof that a campaign by “ordinary” people can achieve results is that co-ordinated by CAAT which encouraged the prestigious publishing firm (of medical and educational publications) to stop organising arms fairs, a fact unrealised by many until revealed by CAAT.

Reed Elsevier now says that it will no longer organise free international arms fairs.

Addition to the Library

Rabble-Rouser for Peace by John Allen is the authorised biography of Desmond Tutu. A copy has been obtained for the Meeting House Library and is classified as B(iography) 72. Archbishop Tutu is undoubtedly one of the most celebrated and significant characters of our time, and this account of his life is full of interest and detail. Too much so, in fact, for justice to be done to it in a short note such as this, but enjoyable to read and worthy of prolonged study.

Questionnaire

The result of the July Questionnaire, concerning out of Meeting activities, that the Elders invited Friends and Attenders to complete, suggested that there is an interest in reviving the Seekers/Searchers Group.

Some years ago the Group met in the evening once a month, alternately at Elaine Boulter's or Sylvia and Keith Oakey's house.

If you are at all interested in reforming this group at different venues and time, with various topics for discussion, please let us know, and/or come for a cup of tea to 23 Delavale Road, Winchcombe, on Thursday, 11th October at 3.00 pm.

Elaine Boulter, Keith Oakey and Olive Betterton

Sharing and Helping in Cheltenham Meeting

Part of the joy of meeting together in Cheltenham Quaker Meeting is that we can share in out ministry to one another. Unlike other churches, we have no paid clergy; we all share the responsibility for Quaker work. But our ministry does not end with Meeting for Worship, but can extend into the roles which are necessary to ensure Cheltenham Meeting runs smoothly and effectively.

From time to time the Nominations committee are advised of vacancies for various Friends to fill, and it is our responsibility to consider who might be the “right” person for any given role. Roles within the Meeting can vary from an occasional task of a few minutes, to regular commitment and input which requires more regular and consistent attendance at Meetings.

We are very aware of the rich variety of gifts, interests and experience which is brought to Meeting by our fellow Friends, and it has occurred to us that there may be Friends who would like to take a more active role in the Meeting. So, if you have an interest in administration, accounting, advertising, Quaker outreach work, or possibly in supporting and caring for each other within the Meeting, or in a catering and hospitality capacity, or perhaps in general maintenance or practical tasks please do come and make yourself known to one of the Nominations Committee. We encourage you to “let your light shine” (Matt 5:16) and invite you to deepen and grow within the Society of Friends.

The Nominations Committee currently comprises: John Cross, Elaine Boulter, Bill Madams, Jo Joy, Joy Heaven, Iris Terrell. Please see note attached.

Jo Joy

Notes from Cheltenham Local (PM) Quaker Meeting

Fifth Sunday postponement of Corrymeela talk: It had proved impossible to find a speaker from Corrymeela to come to us on 30th September. Dr. Bob Purdie has therefore been invited to come on 30th March. Instead, Cynthia Baron will explain the Quaker former Yugoslavia Project in more detail, and this will be followed by a shared lunch.

Nominations Committee: Nominations Committee brought forward to Area Meeting the names of Dorothy Colwill and Keith Oakey to go forward as Elders. Dorothy Colwill, Bill Madams and Carol Scarboro are standing down as Overseers, for which Nominations Committee is seeking three replacements, as well as two additional members of Premises Committee.

Quaker week – programme and plans: Rowland Carson explained in general terms plans for Quaker Week. The Planning Group are still looking at matters of detail. More volunteers are required for Open Day on Saturday, 29th September. Advertisements will be placed on behalf of Area Meeting in newspapers, and announcements made on radio programmes. Copies of our poster will be provided for everyone in the Meeting for distribution.

In the Meeting House itself there will be the Slavery Exhibition from Nailsworth; items from the Quaker Tapestry and a general publicity panel will be purchased from Friends’ House. A George Fox video will be shown.

Quaker Tapestry materials will be on sale, and outreach material will be available.
